

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would read and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be so tired and nervous that I could hardly get to bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. H. Dooley, 1135 25th Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. It has overcome just such conditions for thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience is at your service.

PARACHUTES DELIVER SMALL-ARM AMMUNITION TO BRITISH IN ADVANCED PICARDY POSTS.

Eleven Tons of Bombs Dropped on Cambrai Junction and East St. Quentin.

London, Aug. 29.—British troops in the advanced positions of the Picardy battle front were supplied with small arm ammunition by aeroplanes, which made delivery with parachutes, it is officially announced today in the British aviation communication.

Eleven and a half tons of bombs also were dropped by British aeroplanes on Cambrai Junction and on an enemy aerodrome east of St. Quentin during the night.

Low clouds, rain and wind greatly interfered with flying on Aug. 29. Photography was almost impossible and observation for artillery fire was very difficult.

Six tons of bombs were dropped by our aeroplanes and many rounds fired from the air upon the enemy troops and transports in the battle zone.

At various points, small arm ammunition was delivered by parachute to our troops in the forward areas of the battlefield.

One enemy machine was destroyed in air fighting and another was brought down in flames by our anti-aircraft fire. Two of our machines are missing.

EXCITEMENT IN SPAIN INCREASING

Cabinet Meeting Ostensibly for Economic Discussion—German Relations Strained.

Madrid, Aug. 30.—The cabinet council will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon. According to the official legislation, the meeting will be to discuss economic problems and the budget, but it is the general belief that other important questions will be brought forward. Public opinion displays symptoms of considerable excitement over the international situation and many conferences are being held by leading politicians.

Count Romanones, minister of justice, told newspaper men today there was no occasion for alarm. Other ministers are making great efforts to tranquillize the populace. Some of them declare that parliament will meet shortly to deal with current questions, while Count Romanones is taking steps to modify or even suppress the censorship, which is regarded as very severe.

Today's meeting of the cabinet council probably is only the first of a series of gatherings which will continue into September.

Diplomatic relations between Spain and Germany have been strained for the last few weeks over the sinking of Spanish ships by German submarines. There have been evidences of excitement among the Spanish people over the situation, and especially since Spain instructed her minister to Germany to inform the German government that Spain intended to replace ten for ten Spanish ships sunk by German submarines with German ships interned in Spanish ports. It is said that Germany has not replied to the Spanish decision. It is probable that this situation is the "other important question" referred to in the foregoing dispatch.

PRUSSIAN REGIMENTS BROKE ENEMY ASSAULTS

Says Berlin Dispatch—Boiry-
Notre Dame, Focus of Bitter Fighting, Retaken.

Berlin (Via London), Thursday, Aug. 29.—The communication from general headquarters today says:

"Pomeranian and West Prussian regiments broke the enemy's assaults again yesterday. Effectively supporting by the flanking fire of their artillery, they threw back the enemy every time."

"Boiry-Notre Dame was the focus of bitter fighting. Three times were the ruins of this recaptured from the enemy by counter attacks. After a fresh enemy attack in the evening the place remained in our hands."

"The main thrust of the British attack was directed against the Wurttemberg regiments on both sides of the Arras-Cambrai road. Seven times the enemy stormed in vain. Tanks advanced again and again and near the road followed by infantry in deep formation. The attack was arrested by the fire of our machine guns and our guns which drove up to the front lines. Where the enemy penetrated into our position our counter attack drove him completely back again."

"British Fired on Town." "South of Croisilles and southeast of Mory, British attacks were repulsed. There was no infantry activity southwest of Bapaume. A heavy British fire was directed on the town itself."

"In Tuesday's battle for Philloy infantry regiment 206 distinguished itself. Although threatened in the rear by the enemy break through to the north, the nine companies held the eastern edge of the place to the last cartridge, and then with the bayonet. By their own initiative, three companies of the same regiment came to their assistance and threw the enemy out of the place again."

"North of the Somme, in the early morning, the enemy renewed his attacks between Fiers and Curly. Near Hardecourt he penetrated our lines. He was ejected in counter attack by the Kaiser Franz grenadier guard regiment, in co-operation with Heasian companies."

"Between the Somme and the Oise, advance guards before our new positions kept in fighting touch with the enemy. On Tuesday morning only three weeks ago, but yesterday more rapidly, advancing beyond Dompierre, Belloy, Neaulx and Suzoy. They frequently forced him to make costly attacks and then retired. Southwest of Novion, after the strongest artillery preparation, the enemy attacked our old lines. We no longer occupied them."

Monday, Sept. 16, the Last Day to Get the $1 Bottle for 65 Cents.

Mr. J. C. Hansel, who resides at 1011 East 12th street, and is employed by the Southern railroad, called on Globe Tonic demonstrators and said: "Your Globe Tonic is simply wonderful. I was seized by an acute attack of indigestion about three weeks ago and I stepped into the Globe Tonic store and got one of the free samples of Globe Tonic and it relieved me immediately. Later on I bought a bottle and it improved me wonderfully and, since using the second bottle of Globe Tonic, all my indigestion is gone. I also had to get up from five to seven times at night to relieve my kidneys, but now I don't have to get up at all on that account."

Any drug store will supply you with the Globe Tonic Remedies. We sell the regular $1 size bottles for 65 cents (six for $3.50) and refund the price if the first bottle does not benefit. Call on the demonstrator at 1225 Market street and let them tell you of your friends and neighbors who are using and praising the Globe Tonic, and get a free sample.—(Adv.)

HEAVENS! NO!
Chicago, Aug. 30.—(I. N. S.)—Chicago women of quality love the Red Cross and want to win the war—but there are limits. One of them is to permit the junk man a chance to loiter around on gasless Sundays and entertain his family with readings from love letters. It would be a shame if Hindenburg walk into Paris, they agree, but not half so horrible as the suggestion of Mrs. Samuels of Chicago to Kenwood women that they sell their love letters as waste paper.

"We love our country," said Mrs. Wm. D. Man, of Dearborn Parkway, who was Miss Julie Manierre, "but it isn't an invasion of patriotic duty to hold on to one's love letters. I get a world of use out of mine."

Noyon was subjected by the French to the heaviest fire. The town lies in front of our battle front.

North of the Aisne the French renewed their attacks, in co-operation with the Americans. They were repulsed with heavy losses. At Paisy, Allied cavalry and rifle regiments beat back the enemy's fivefold assault. Several tanks were shot to pieces."

OBLIGATION PERSONAL, SAYS PROVOST MARSHAL

Gen. Crowder Warns Men Affected by 18.45 Draft-Age
Law to Register.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Men likely to be affected by the extension of draft ages to include all between 18 and 45 years were notified last night in a statement from Provost Marshal-General Crowder that the obligation rested on them to ascertain their exact age before the new registration day.

Selection of a date for the new nature for the registration is known to be under consideration by the provost marshal-general. The prospective dates are Sept. 10, 11 or 12.

Persons in doubt as to whether or not they come within the new age limits of 18 to 45 years should make every effort possible to clear up this doubt between now and the day set for registration, Gen. Crowder said in his statement.

"Failure to do so this will not excuse a man from registering if as a matter of fact he comes within the age limits laid down in congressional enactments of the nation will be used to locate persons who so fail to register. Such persons under the law would be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction would be liable to a year's imprisonment."

TO ASSUME COMMAND EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Government Will Pay Tuition and Sustenance of Boys
Over 18.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—The United States government, in a sense, has decided to take a hand in the direction of colleges, universities, high schools and even grammar schools for the duration of the war, it was announced here today. Such action is without precedent in any nation.

Plans will be made this week at Fort Sheridan, where representatives of all the colleges and universities in the middle west will confer with army chiefs over Saturday and Sunday.

The result of the announcement is that "any boy, 18 years old or more, who has the physical and mental requirements, may go to any university or college, east or west, and get his tuition and subsistence from the government."

It also is understood that the curriculums of the various schools are to be militarized to a considerable extent, and that one of the objects of the step is to sift the young men of the country with a view of selecting those best fitted for training to become army officers.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Aerial mail service between New York and Chicago will begin Sept. 5, it was announced today. The first flight from New York will start from Belmont park in the morning and end at Fort Dearborn in the afternoon. Stops will be made at Cleveland and Bryan, O. Two machines, one equipped with a Liberty motor, will be used. The course to be followed cuts off 250 miles from the rail route.

JAPANESE MEET VICTORY IN SIBERIA

Begin New Offensive, Aided by Allied Troops, in Vicinity of Ussuri.

London, Aug. 30.—Japanese troops, augmented by allied reinforcements, have launched a new offensive in the vicinity of Ussuri, which they stormed with machine guns, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tientsin.

The new attack began after the finding of the mutilated bodies of their comrades by the Japanese. Their advance was irresistible and the enemy was driven northward on the right wing. The allied forces are making substantial progress on Gen. Semenov's front and have taken a number of guns from the retreating enemy.

Bolsheviks Routed. Vladivostok, Monday, Aug. 26.—(Reuters).—The enemy in considerable numbers attacked desperately along the Ussuri front last Saturday. All the allied forces participated in the fighting except the Americans. Upwards of 300 of the enemy were killed. The Japanese bore the brunt of the fighting. They captured two armored trains and several field guns.

According to a wounded Czech, the Japanese, infuriated by finding mutilated comrades on the battlefield, charged and routed the enemy in the face of heavy machine gun and rifle fire. The Japanese report that the allied troops are advancing steadily.

PREDICT COMPLETE GERMAN COLLAPSE

If Allies Can Keep Up Rolling
Back Process of Last Seventy-Two Hours.

Washington, Aug. 30.—Complete collapse of German resistance on the western front is only a matter of days if the allied forces can continue to roll up the gains that have characterized the fighting of the past seventy-two hours.

This was the opinion of certain general officers here today. They pointed out, however, that at present the enemy, while being driven back by Foch's sledge hammer blows more rapidly than even the most optimistic had hoped, was far from being routed. But they made it plain that if the British, French and Americans can only keep up the pace they are now setting, each in turn delivering a telling smash upon the Hun lines, a complete collapse could be expected.

The continued successes of the allied armies were looked upon here as a striking example of the unity of command that prevails under Gen. Foch. While these armies are operating separately, each with its own plan of campaign to carry out, still they are being directed by Marshal Foch's general principle of action, which is to follow low blow with blow so rapidly that the enemy is given no chance to "get set" as a result the British are hitting in the north blows so hard that today they were reported to have crossed the Somme. The French are hammering at the German lines below and still further south the Americans are doing their share of the pounding.

Thus the obvious plan of keeping the enemy "off his balance" seems to be bringing result by the American fire became too hot for them. The enemy casualties are unknown.

The German artillery fire in the Woerwe increased materially last night.

AMERICANS REPULSE GERMAN RAIDS ON VESLE

Airplane Shot Down by U. S.
Fliers on Front, East of St. Mihiel.

Paris, Aug. 30.—German raids along the Vesle, where American troops are stationed, and in Champagne failed.

With the American Army in France, Wednesday, Aug. 29.—(A. P.)—An enemy airplane was shot down today after it had attacked several American observation balloons on the front east of St. Mihiel.

With the American Army in France, Thursday, Aug. 29.—(A. P.)—In three different patrol encounters in the Vosges last night the Germans were repulsed by the American fire. The enemy casualties are unknown.

The German artillery fire in the Woerwe increased materially last night.

OFF THE WIRES

The American violinist, Frederic F. Fradkin, of Troy, N. Y., has been appointed director of the Boston Symphony orchestra, to succeed Anton Witke.

Amendments of Senator Phelan to extend until June 30, 1920, the effective date for prohibition in wine and beer and also of wine alone were overwhelmingly rejected by the senate without record.

The government on Thursday paid out $154,000,000 for ordinary war expenses. It was the largest sum paid in the history of the nation for these purposes.

Senator Sulzer, the Swiss minister at Washington, who is about to return to the United States, will bring with him representatives of five of the principal Swiss banks.

In a raid at Austin, Tex., police and military authorities arrested 150 white men for investigation under the work-or-fight regulations.

Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, on Thursday revised his efforts to raise the final price for wheat by introducing a new amendment to the agriculture bill to establish prices ranging from $2.31 to $2.54.

A fifty-million-dollar fund for the relief of drought sufferers in portions of Texas is provided in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Blanton, of Texas, which proposes a maximum loan of $5 an acre to farmers and $10 a head to stockmen.

Upwards of 2,600,000 letters and other mailed documents of alleged seditious import have been seized recently in Chicago.

Airplanes raided Constantinople on the night of Aug. 27 and dropped bombs and manifestos. One person was killed.

Representative Sears, of Florida, introduced a bill in the house providing for an agricultural exhibit at the Pan-American fair at Jacksonville, Fla., during the fiscal year ending June 30 next.

On Thursday nominations for 2,600 postmasters and 2,500 army and navy officers were transmitted by the president.

The steamer Missouri, now in port at Milwaukee, has been chartered by the shipping board as a training ship for merchant marine apprentices on the Great Lakes.

15-YEAR BRONCHIAL TROUBLE ENDED

Mr. Williamson Says It Was Almost Unbearable.

HE PRAISES LUNG-VITA Was Feeling Good Almost Before He Knew It, He Declares.

"I had suffered for fifteen years with a bronchial trouble and it had just about reached the place where I could not see how I would live if it any longer," said Mr. C. C. Williamson, who lives at 1032 Seymour Ave., Nashville, Tenn., not long ago.

"I had tried so many things without getting any relief at all that I had about decided that I would have to leave Tennessee before I would have a chance to get well. But fortunately I happened to try Lung-Vita. This remarkable medicine was cleaning out the bronchial tubes and the first thing I knew I had got to feeling good. I am not bothered any at all now with bronchial trouble and I firmly believe you cannot beat Lung-Vita for this disease."

Should your druggist or dealer not have Lung-Vita write Nashville Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn.—(Adv.)
